FEICHINGER WHIPS FANNING.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE HERALD.]

Sr. Paul, Minn., Jan. 4, 1891 .- Joe Fanning and

Charles Feichinger, of St. Paul, fought five brutal rounds at North St. Paul, for $100 a side, at one

'clock this morning, with Pat Killen as master of ceromonies.

Feichinger entered the ring weighing 140 pounds and Fanning 145 pounds. The mill was of the most furious character and many knockdowns occurred. Both puglists came up groggy in the fifth round. Fanning led, but foll short, and got a right-handed awing in the neck that sent him half under the ropes, where he slept for thirty seconds, and the fight was given to Foichinger.

GENERAL SPORTING NOTES.

S. H. Barton, of the Staten Island Cricket Club, says Tyers, the Manhattan's old professional, never received an effort from the S. L.O.C., but that, on the contrary, he made a formal written application for employment in the club as profession cricketer, which application the club, after due consideration, refused.

AMATEUR BOWLING ASSOCI

several days before that. Since leaving New York few weeks ago both President A. W. Thurman, of the American Association, and A. G. Spalding have been working diligently to effect a settlement of the tangles in the various cities with varied success. WHAT MIL THURMAN HAS DONE.

Mr. Thurman has succeeded in getting Syracuse out of the w's, but for the time being he has falled in his hope of inducing Tolodo to withdraw from th; Association circuit. The Toledo people are either anxious to continue where they are and have consequently refused to abdicate, or are anxious to bleed the Association well for their resignation. As far as Rochester is concerned President Thurman has not as yet made a direct offer to General Brinker to retire, but he is expected to do so before the coming conclave. If he succeeds in getting Toledo and Bochester out, then Mr. Thurman will make a fight for the admission of clubs located in Boston and Chicago. This is just where the hitch

According to the national agreement neither of these cities can have clubs in the Association with out the consent of the League clubs there. The Boston triumvirs state positively that there will be no Association club in the Hub. They are pulling wires with the Brooklyn and Philadelphia clubs to back them up in this and are liable to cause a peck of trouble in case Spalding and the other League magnates sak them to allow the Boston Players' League club to go on as a member of the Association.

THE CHICAGO OUTLOOK NOT BRILLIANT.

In Chicago A. G. Spalding is said to be opposed to another club. The fact that he has purchased the Players' League Club there, together with the latter's ground, makes it appear that he can do as he pleases in the matter. Milwaukee stands ready to come into the association, if the Chicago deal fails through. At any rate if the Association succeds in putting clubs in Boston and Chicago the teams will be much inferior to the League teams. The Boston Players' League club will be compelled to hand over to the League such men as Nash, Quinn, Stovey, Brouthers Richardson and others, which will weaken the present strong team perceptibly.

Bufalo wants an Association franchise, and as a last resort may be given one in piace of Boston. The Wagners will probably receive the Athleto club franchise in Philadelphia without much trouble, and Washington's new club will also be admitted. Whatever happens it looks as though the League will get the best of the bargain. The League magnates are a shrewd lot, and will not allow a rivel organization too much power if they can help it.

VILL TOLEDO BE EXPELLED? Columnus, Ohio, Jan. 4, 1891.—The Tolado Baseball Club having refused the effect of $7,000 for its franchise in the American Association, President Thurman has acet the following to Mr. Ketcham, of the Toledo club;—
"You are hereby notified to appear at eleven o'clock
A. M. on Wedneday, January 18, 1691, at the Fifth Avenue listes, New York, before a meeting at the American Association of Baseduil Clubs to be held at said time and

H. B. Sannett, of the old Unit Association club, is the president. Sam Trott will manage the

The clubs of the big leagues have already bogun planning Southern trips for their teams. Captain Anson has about decided to take his Chicagos to Texas early in February. The Louisvilles will be there on the let of March in order to get into trim for their spring series with the Brooklyn Bridegrooms for the world's championship. The New York club will probably send the Giants to Charleston, S. C., as for the past.

BOWLING EXPERTS AT PLAY. CLEVER TWIRLERS OF THE WOODEN BALL TUMBLE THE TENPINS OVER.

This bocker Hotel alleys, 138th street and Mott avenue, on Saturday evening to witness the inaugural handicap horses are in the list, Firenzi being the games of the new Knicker- only star conspicuously absent. Here are the asbocker tourney.

The first game of the evening was between the Phoenix club, whose brilliant record in the Herald tournament last season is still frosh in the memory of lovers of the sport, and the Madisons. Until the final frame it was anybody's game, but a few weil placed "double headers" toward the close of the contest won the game for the Phomix bowlers. In the second game the Madisons had as their opponents the Metropolitans, and until the sixth frame both teams were going at a neck and neck rate. But this evidently was more than the "Metr" could stand and they went to pieces at critical stages of the game, allowing the Madisons to win. The final contest of the night was a walkover for the Phoenix club, their opponents being no match for thom. During the games many pretty plays were made by Pearse, King, Snyder and Cowperthwaite. Byrnes' double century score was also a feature. The secres follow:— Phonix club, whose brilliant record in the HERALD

HONEST, FEARLESS AND OUTSPOKEN.

Praise and Kindly Feeling.

A Man Who Would Be a Power in the Conneils of the Nation and Who Would Worthily Represent the Empire State.

[From the Utica Herald.] If anybody thought that laughter could be excited by advocacy of Mr. Dana for Senator he has learned his mistake, for the editor of the Sun is so far head and shoulders in brains, culture and ideas above the self-seeking democrats who are talked about that discussion calls out the admiration and eulogy so well deserved. The result will doubtless prove that Governor Hill and Tammany Hall have no use for such a scholar and patriot and gentleman as he is, and the emnity of Mr. Cleveland and the mugwumps will serve as a pretext for setting him saide: but the New York Herald has called forth a chorus of praise and kindly feeling and a record of discriminating judgment which hr. Dana can take as laurels freely bestowed and sure to endure.

LET THE STRAW GO AND CLUTCH AT THE GOOD

TIMBER! [From the New York Evening Call.] It looks very much as if "Barkis is willin'," In our esteemed contemporary the Sun there appears an editorial setting forth the claims of the metropolitan countles-of New York and Brooklyn-and showing that, having supplied the democratic majority, one of them should also be allowed to supply the Senatorial candidate.

This is logical and fair; it is scientific and timely, if the candidate is to come from New York Brother Dana should be selected by all means. No other democrat in this locality can hold a candle to him.

hold a candle to him.

But, as we remarked the other day, the democratic majority of the next Legislature is but two on a joint ballet, and there is strong evidence that more than two democrats are not justly entitled to their seats. Perhaps it may not be a democrat, after all.

AT THE FRONT, OF COURSE! [From the Auburn Bulletin.] State Senator Cantor, who is at Albany, is quoted

There is nothing but talk yet on the United States Senatorship, and there will not be till after the organization. Smith M. Weed has no votes absolutely pledged to him, and if Kings, holding the balance of power, goes for Alfred Chapin Weed may not get it yet. GAMES TO-NIGHT.

STE NG ARGUMENTS IN DANA'S FAVOR. [From the Passaic City Record.]

HERALD's Charles A. Dana?

The New York Henald in booming Charles A. Dana for Senator publishes all sorts of criticisms of the editor of the Sun, and Mr. Dana has an oppertunity which few men have-that of seeing himself as others see him. With but few exceptions the general opinion is that a better selection could not be made. It is true that Mr. Dana's polities are of a somewhat doubtful character, but we four hundred of the best athletes in the country will compete, and it is expected that some of the indoor records will be broken. A few of the principal entries follows—

In the seventy-five yard dash F. M. Reilly, of the Acorn A.A., is on the scratch mark; W. H. Morgan, N.J.M.C., I yard; M. P. Helbin, New York city, 3 yards; J. M. Glenn, National A.C., 4 yards, and seventy other good men will mest in this race.

In the mile and a laif run, fifty athletes will strive for glory. A. B. George is scratch man with E. Hjertsberg, Athletes League, 20 yards; J. D. Reid, American A.C., 20 yards; Conrad Marks, M. A.C., 40 yards, and W. S. French, N.Y.A.C., 120 yards. Elighty young men will compete in the half-mile novice race and it would be a difficult matter to pick the winner. In the eight hundred and eighty yards handicap run forty-live men are entered, with Conrad Marks, M. A.C., scratch; W. C. Madge, 15 yards, W. S. French, N.Y.A.C., 15 yards, and C. M. Raymond, C.A.C., 15 yards.

In the two mile bicycle race A. E. Stilger, Riverside Wheelmen, and V. J. Kelley, A.C.S.N., are on scratch, with H. S. Wiegand, Eings County Wheelmen, and H. C. Wheeler, Grange A.C., 1 yard.

The four hundred and forty yard handicap run has among its entries G. L. Callin, Corinthian A.C., scratch; S. E. Corbett, Long Island, 1 yard; F. F. Sliney, N.J.A.C., 3 yards; E. Barnes, N.J.A.C., 3 yards; J. M. Glen, National A.C., 5 yards, and E. L. Sarre, M. A. C., 6 yards.

In the one and a half mile walk (handicap) are C.

believe this is for rather than against him. A man should not be elected to a public office simply because he is republican or democrat, but because he is the best man for the position.

Charles A. Dana is eminently fitted for the Senatorship. He is an honest, fearless and outspoken man and his ability is unquestioned. Of course the mere politician will object to him, for the reason that Mr. Dana cannot be depended on to listen to the dictates of bosses and political healers, which latter is another argument in his favor.

BUT IT ISN'T DEAD BY ANY MEANS. [From the Arkansas Gazette.] The NEW YORK HERALD'S Senatorial boom for Mr. C. A. Dana seems to have died early. It was too FOR THE GOVERNOR'S SCRAP BOOK,

[From the Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle.] The HERALD is calling on Governor Hill to drive an artesian well into the lewer depths of his soul and pump up courage enough to nominate Mr. Dana for the Senatorship.

THE ATTEMPT TO MAKE IT A JOKE IS A FAILURE. [From the Watertown Times.] As a joke, the New York Henald's advocaty of Charles A. Dans, of the Sun, for United States Senstor, has proved a failure. The response has been that there is no joke about it, but that he is in point of ability, in carnestness and in every way head and shoulders above any other democrat who could be named. The joke is on the democratic party that they do not dare elect such an inde-pendent thinking and independent acting democrat.

A NOMINATION THAT COMMANDS ATTENTION. [From the Westchester Times.]

The nomination of Charles A. Dans, of the Sun, as Senator Evarts' successor, by the Herald, seems to be attracting more attention than it was at first to be attracting more attention than it was at first supposed would be given it. The democracy of the State could not do better than to send Mr. Dana to Washington. A man of large intellect and extensive acquaintance with public men and affairs, Mr. Dana would be a power in the United States Senate, and his election would no doubt prove very astisfactory to democrats generally throughout the country. There is no doubt that he would represent the Empire State as that great State should be represented.

BOYS AND GIRLS MET TO DANCE.

THEN PROPRIETOR SCHWAGER AND BEVERAL VISITORS WERE ARRESTED.

August C. Schwager, the proprietor of the White Oaks Hall, at No. 1,034 Amsterdam avenue, and the socialistic candidate for Alderman in his district last fall, was a prisoner in the Harlem Police Court yesterday morning, where he was charged by the agents of Mr. Gerry's society with permitting children under sixteen years of age to frequent public dances at; his resort.

Superintendent E. Fellows Jenkins, of the society, was informed a short time ago that Proprietor Schwager was holding Wednesday and Saturday night dances at the White Oaks Hall to which boys night dances at the White Oaks Hall to which boys and zirls were admitted. Officers Moore and Gormley were instructed to investigate the complaint and visited the dance house on Saturday evening. There were probably fifty couples in the hall, the ages of the dancers ranging from fourteen to twenty-one years.

The officers acrested Lizzie Trabole, of No. 216 West Sixty-fourth street; Christians Isenberg, of No. 314 West Sixty-ninth street; and Deborah Ryan and Maggie Taylor, of No. 604 West Sixty-second street.

and Maggie Taylor, of No. 603 West Sixty-second atroct.

The first three girls told Police Justice Divver yesterday morning that they were seventeen years old, and they were discharged. The Taylor girl admitted to Moore and Gormley when she was arrested that she was only sixteen years old, and as a precaution the officers obtained her birth certificate. While in court yesterday morning the girl's mother said her daughter was eighteen, but gave in when the birth certificate was displayed. Justice Divver held the Taylor girl as a witness against Landlord Schwager, whose examination is set down for Tuesday morning at half-past ten o'clock. Schwager's lawyer told the Justice that the prisoner had nothing to do with the dance which took place in the rear of the salcon, as it was given by the Thompson Ciub, to whom he rented the hall. He did not know how the young girls obtained their admission to the hall.

A brother of the Taylor girl, who was in court, told me that the dances were given by Schwager and were frequented by the toughest element in the neighborhood of the hall. Girls were admitted to the dance without the payment of an admission, while the men were charged a hat fee of tweaty-five cents.

Schwager was admitted to bail in the sum of five cents.

Schwager was admitted to bail in the sum of $200, which was furnished by Gebhard Hatz, of No. 1,036 Amsterdam avenue.

"HAPPY JACK" STOLE A HORSE,

Frederick Graham, twenty-two years of age, of No. 225 East Ninety-seventh street, was charged in the Harlem Police Court yesterday with the theft of a horse valued at $100, the property of Paschal V. Latom, of No. 221 East Ninety-seventh atreet.

the horse in his possession. Justice Divver held Graham for examination. The prisoner is an ex-convict, known to the police as "Happy Jack," and has served two or three terms of imprisonment.

MR. ROGERS SAW THE TOWN.

Charles Rogers, of No. 10 West Twenty-third street, an agent of the New York Life Insurance Company, got gloriously drunk on Saturday night and hired a hack with which to see the town. and hired a hack with which to see the town. When he got tired riding the hackman asked for pay. Mr. Rogers declined to give it and playfully jammed the hackman's hat down over his ears. There was no doubt of Mr. Rogers' repentance as he stood up before Justice McMahon yesterday in the Jofferson Market Police Court, and he was let off with a $5 fine and paid the hackman's bill.
